Adult Book Clubs in July

Evening Book Club

Tuesday

July 18

6:30pm

"It was too early for gin and lime, and too hot for tea."

A charming, clever, and quietly moving debut novel of endless possibilities and joyful discoveries that explores the promises we make and break, losing and finding ourselves, the objects that hold magic and meaning for our lives, and the surprising connections that bind us.

Afternoon Book Club

Tuesday

July 11

1:00pm

"It's a lot harder to save people than you think it is."

A masterly study of family, memory, loss, and, ultimately, discovery, of finding true identity and a new vision of home. As Mimi says, "No one ever leaves the town where they grew up, even if they go." Miller's Valley reminds us that the place where you grew up can disappear, and the people in it too, but all will live on in your heart forever.

FROM THE REFERENCE DESK

Join us in welcoming Taylor St. Pierre, our new Reference Librarian. He is available via email tstpierre@sailsinc.org and in person at his desk on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Come by to say 'hi', ask a question, or share an interest you think we might have overlooked in our nonfiction section.

New Nonfiction this month:
