AUTHOR TALK

Monday
March 3rd
6:00 PM

Pamela Lowell, an avid birder, jumped at the chance to accompany the Massachusetts Audubon Society in their weekly Osprey nest monitoring project on the Westport River. She hoped to get some photos of cute Osprey chicks that she could use in her paintings—but what happened next was transformative.

“I AM...”

Presented by Motivational Speaker,
Scott Maloney

MONDAY
MARCH 10
6:00 PM

The “I AM ...” program is for anyone who wants to make a change in their life – big or small!

Learn to:

- Maintain positive energy
- Prevent future mistakes
- Learn from the past

“I AM ...” is presented by Massachusetts native, Scott Maloney, who has recovered from a traumatic brain injury. Scott has been a comedian, teacher, television reporter, and for almost twenty years, he’s been a motivational speaker.

This event is sponsored by the Halifax Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Learn to fold origami cranes with artist/origamist Andrea Plate. First, learn the technique and make a crane to take home. Then pitch in to help Andrea achieve her goal of 1000 cranes, which she will later make into an art display representing ocean waves of peace and kindness.

All materials supplied.
